

Membership screen

- On this screen, you can purchase a membership plan.
- You also get a 7-day free trial.
- This subscription provides several features, including changing playback speed, editing snapshots, trimming, downloading, and applying filters to videos.
- This screen includes links to the Privacy Policy and Terms of Service, allowing you to visit them anytime.
- It also has a Rate Us option, so you can directly rate the app on the Play Store or App Store.

Video Play Screen

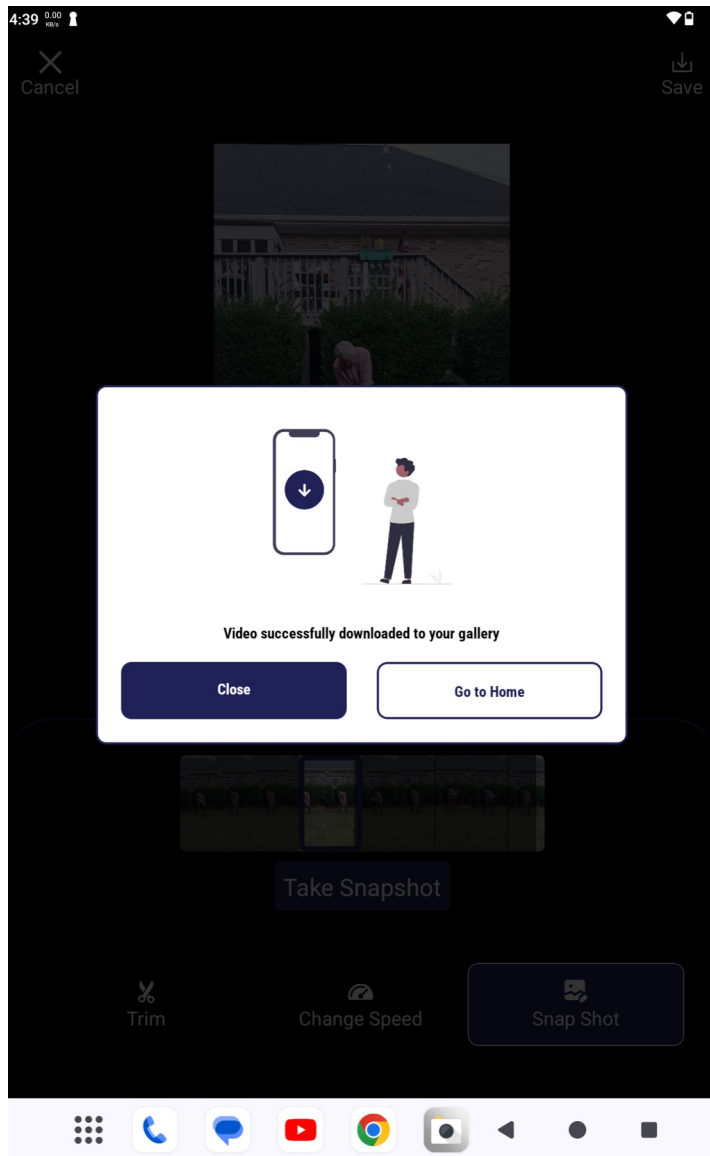

When a user selects a video, they are navigated to the video player screen.

At the top of this screen, there are three icons:

- Delete: Deletes the selected video.
- Edit: Navigates to the edit video screen.
- Save: Saves the video to the local device.

The video player includes the following functionalities:

- Rewind and fast-forward by 0.05 seconds.
- Pause and resume playback.
- Extreme left button: Jumps to the start of the video.
- Extreme right button: Jumps to the end of the video

Video Successfully Download Popup

- This pop-up confirms that your video has been successfully downloaded to your device.
- You can either close it and continue editing the video or go to the home screen.

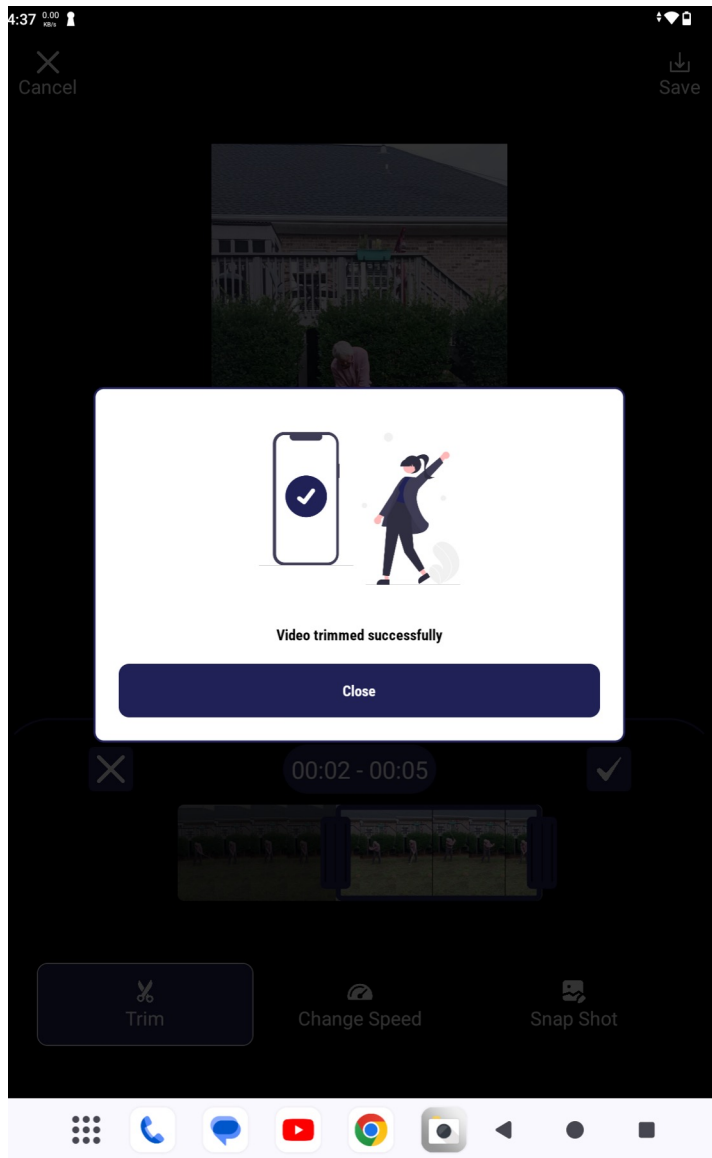

Editing Video Screen

- This pop-up confirms that your video has been successfully downloaded to your device.
- You can either close it to continue editing the video or go to the home screen.

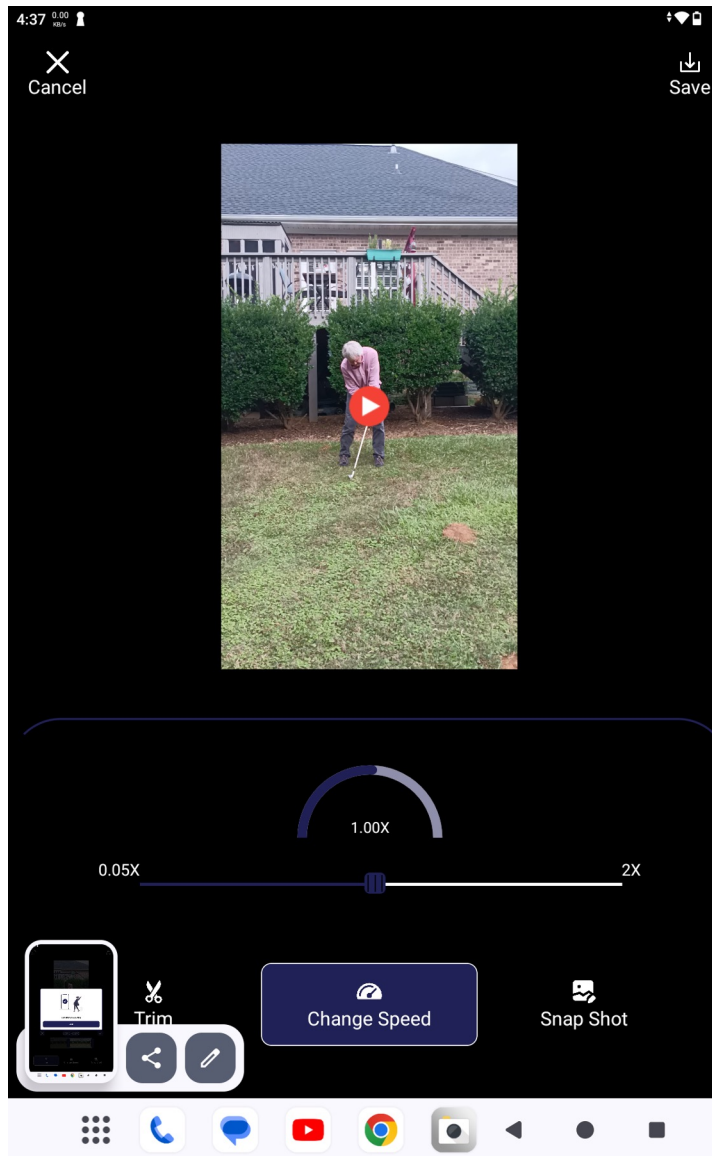

Trim the video screen

- Here you can trim the video by adjusting the thumbs from both side and apply the trim by tapping on tick sign.
- You can either cancel the current video editing session or save the edited video using save button.

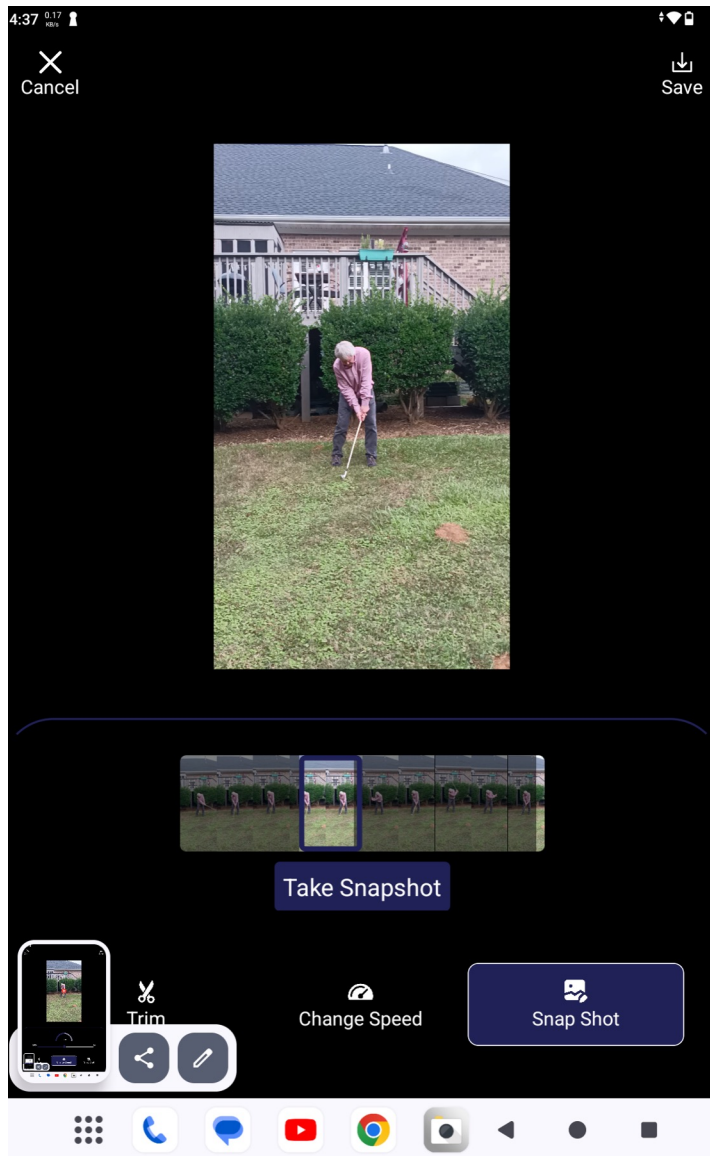

Trim Video Popup

- This pop up shows that your video was trimmed.
- You can close the pop up to continue with editing video.

Change Video Playback Speed

- Here, you can change the playback speed of the video you are editing.
- After adjusting the speed, you can save the updated video to your device by tapping the save button.

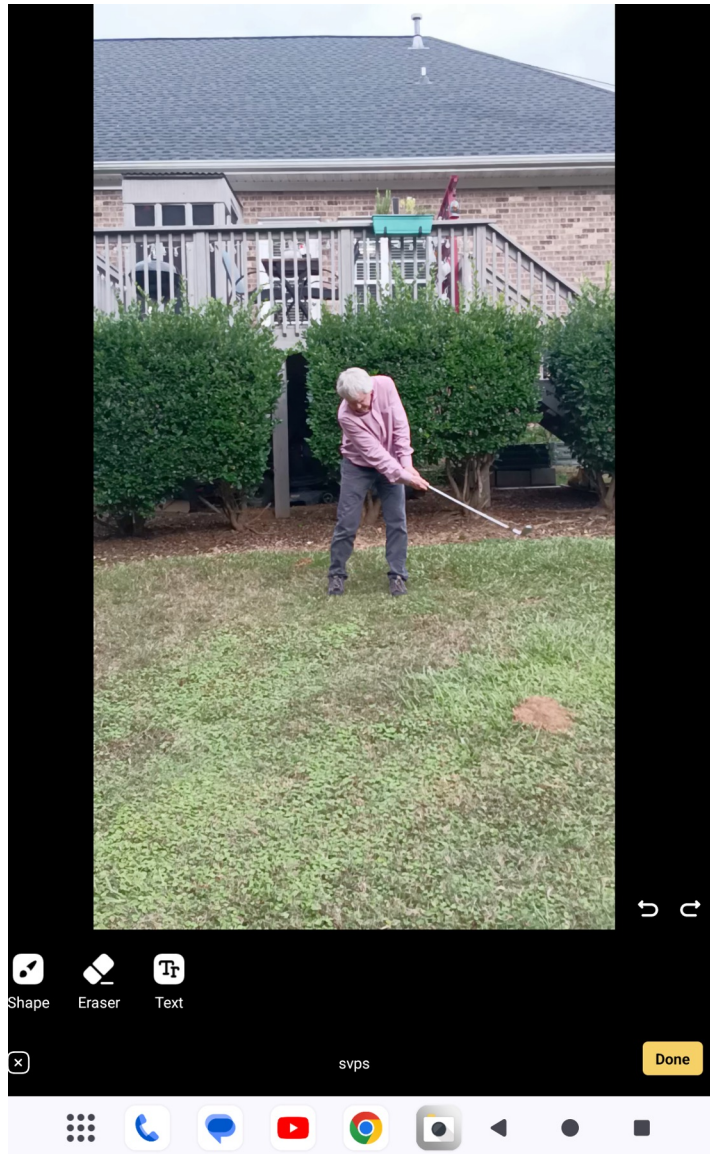

Snapshot of particular frame of video

- Here, you can select any frame by sliding through the video frames.
- After selecting a frame, you can edit it on the next screen.

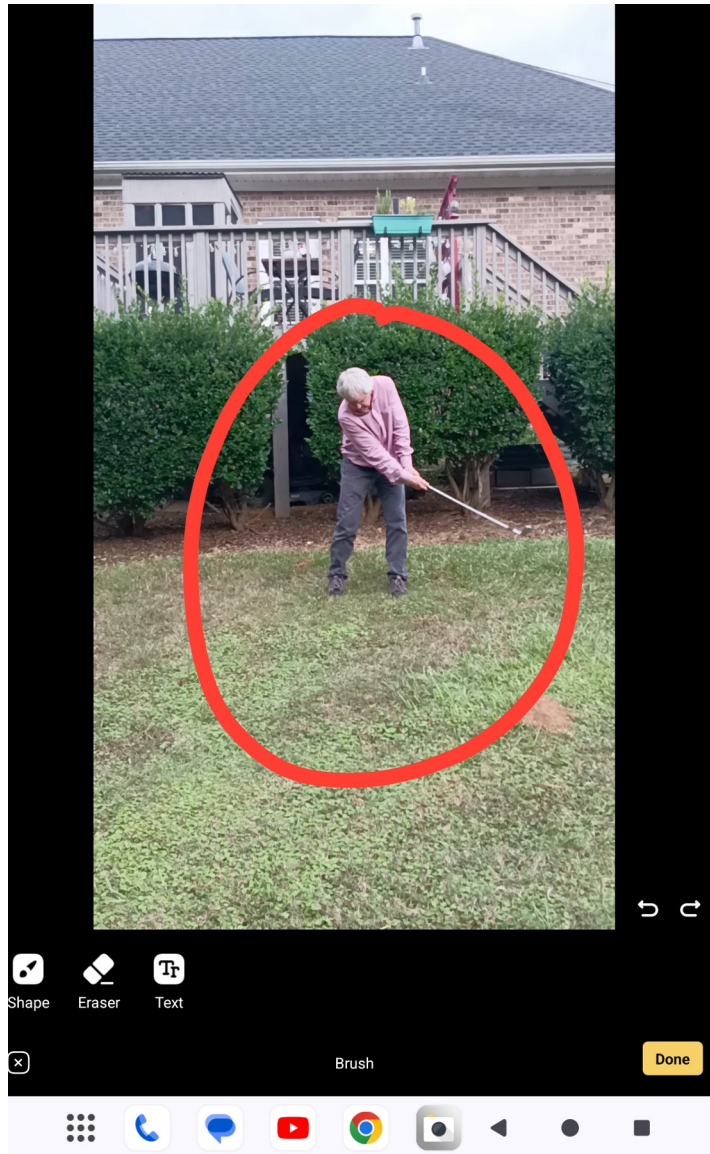

Snapshot editing Screen

- Here, you can edit the snapshot as needed by adding shapes and text.
- If you want to remove shapes or text, you can use the eraser tool.
- You can also use the redo and undo buttons if needed.

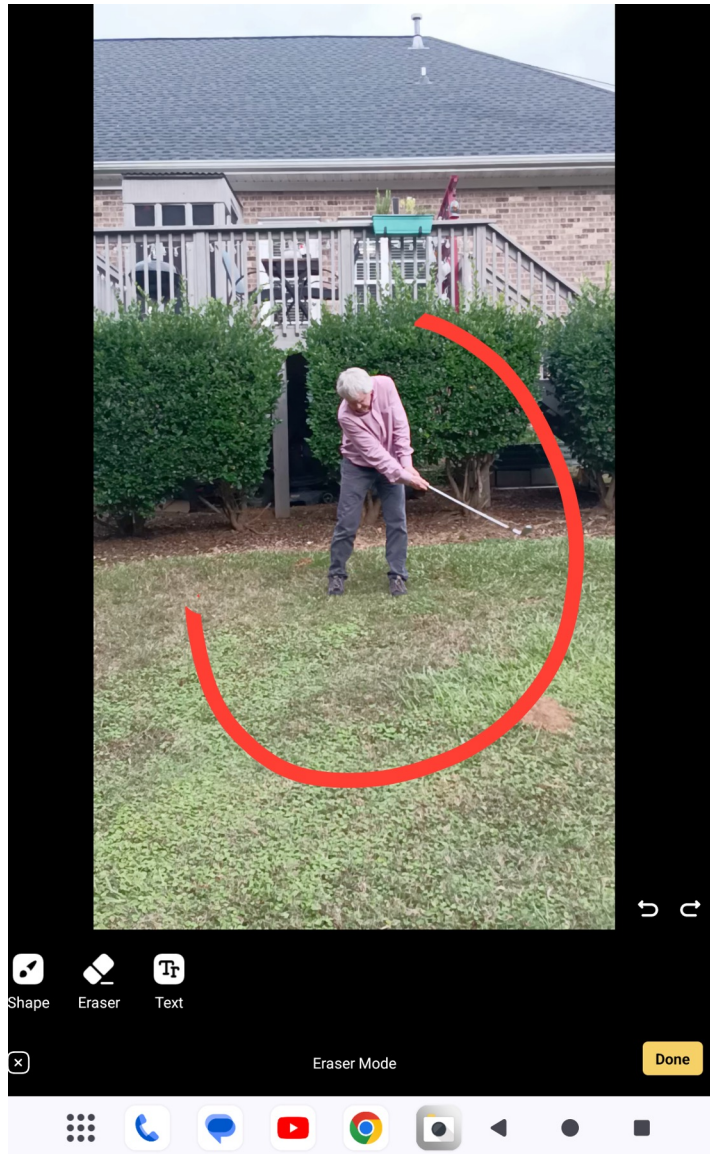

Snapshot editing Screen

- Here, you can add shapes and text as per your needs and requirements.

Snapshot editing Screen

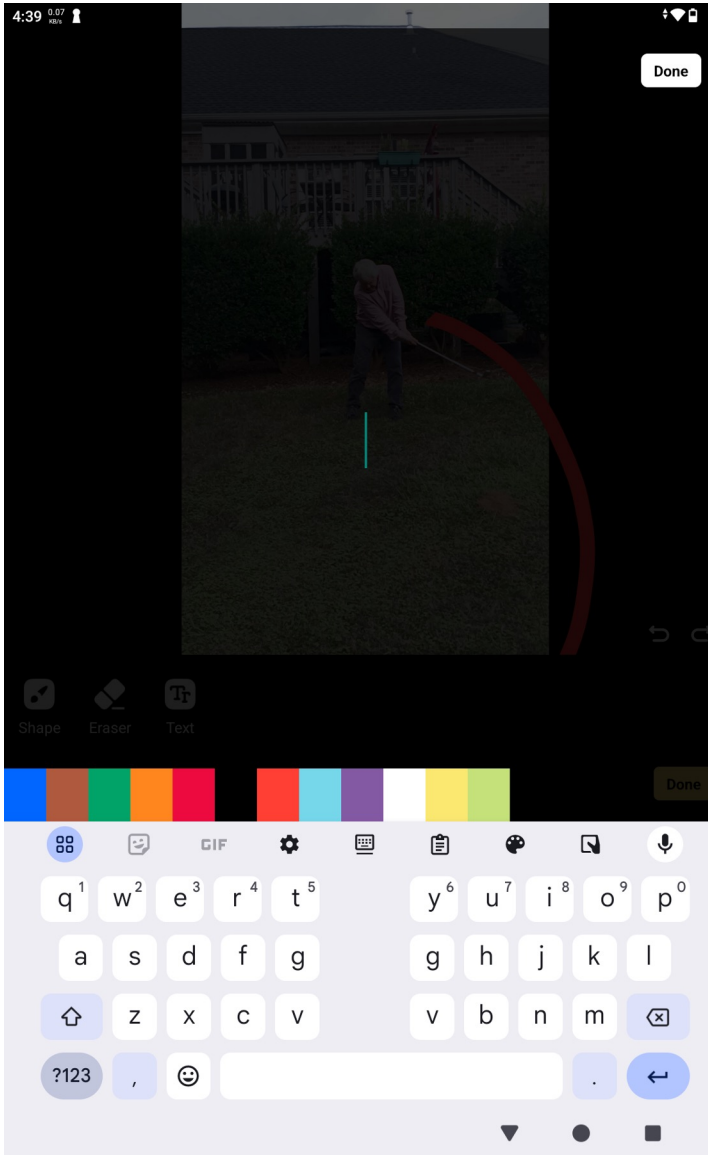

- You can also remove shapes by erasing them from the snapshot.

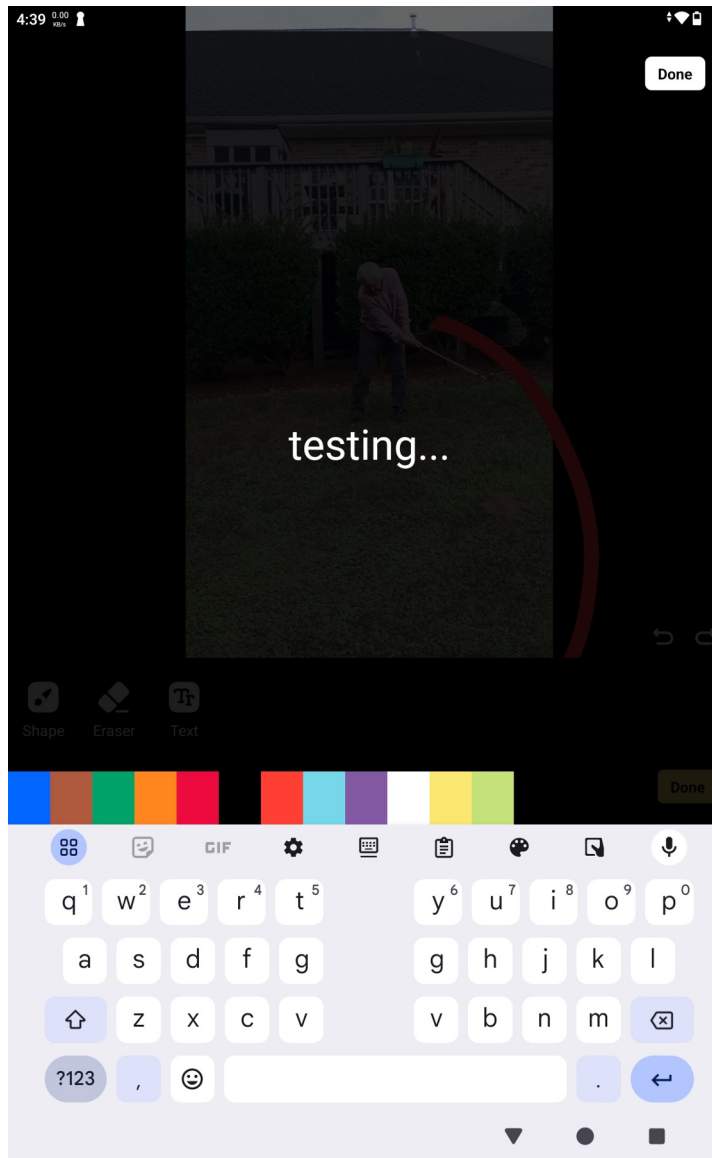

Snapshot editing Screen

- When you select text, you will see this screen.

Snapshot editing Screen

- Pick any color you like and write your text.

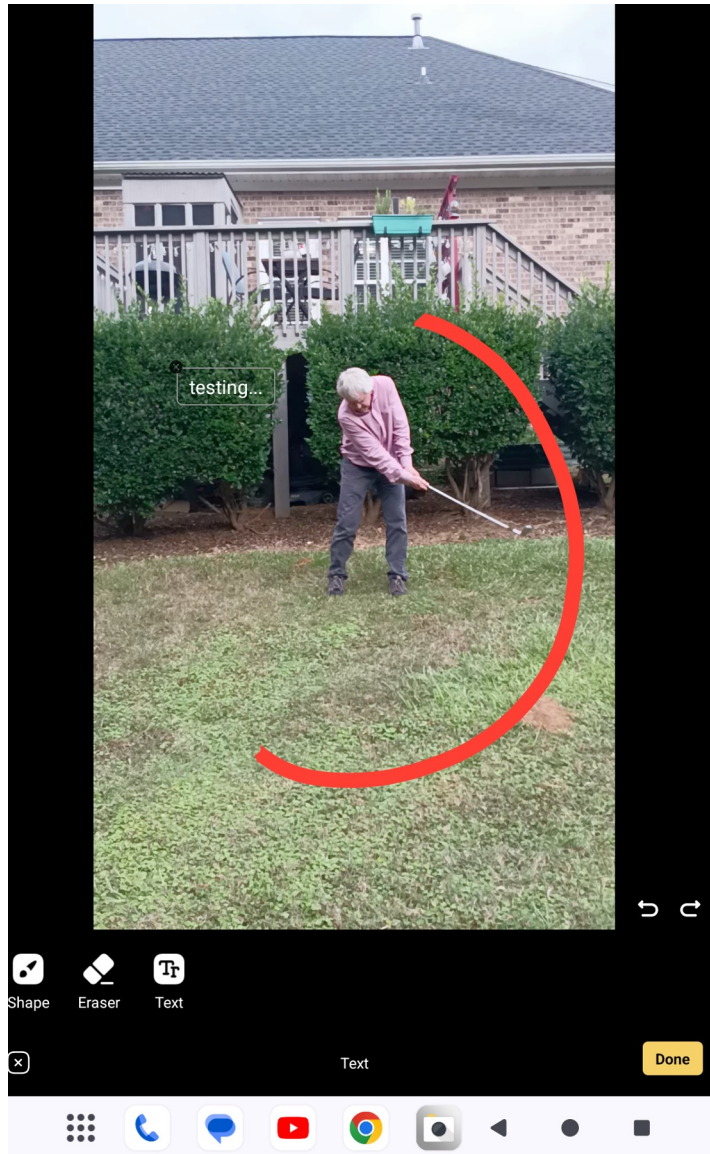

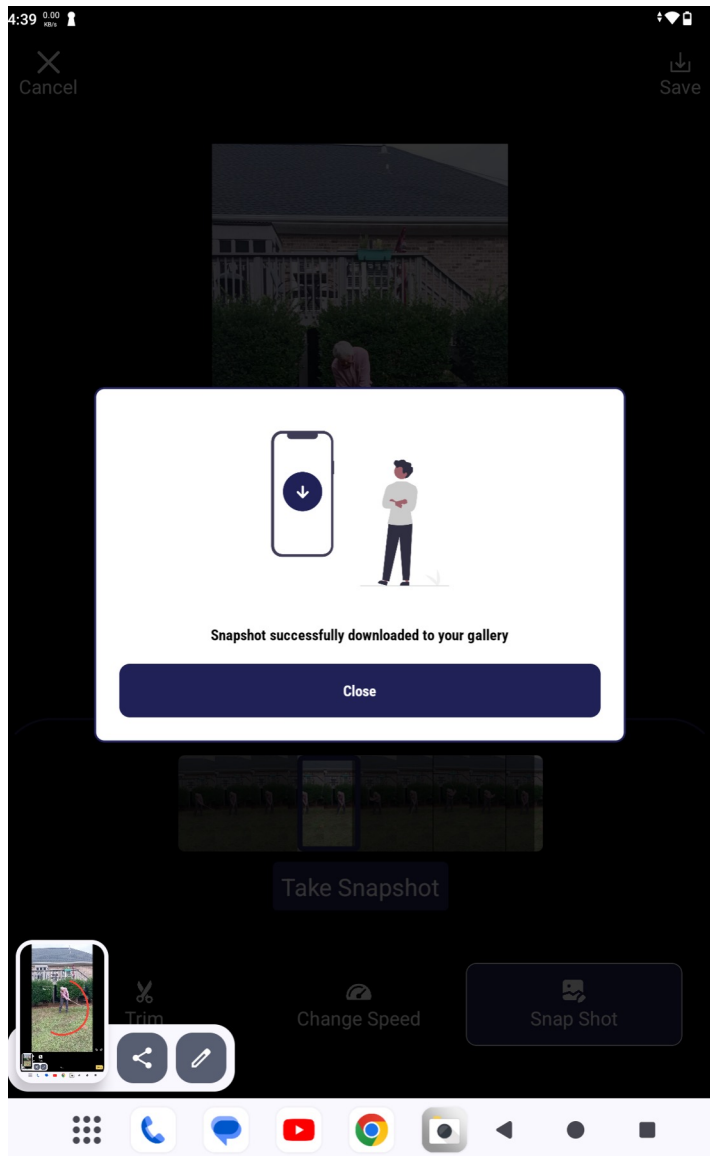

Snapshot editing Screen

- Enter any text you want and tap the Done button

Snapshot editing Screen

- Here, you can see the changes, including shapes and text.
- After editing the snapshot, you can save it to your device by tapping the Done button or cancel the current editing session by clicking the Cancel button.

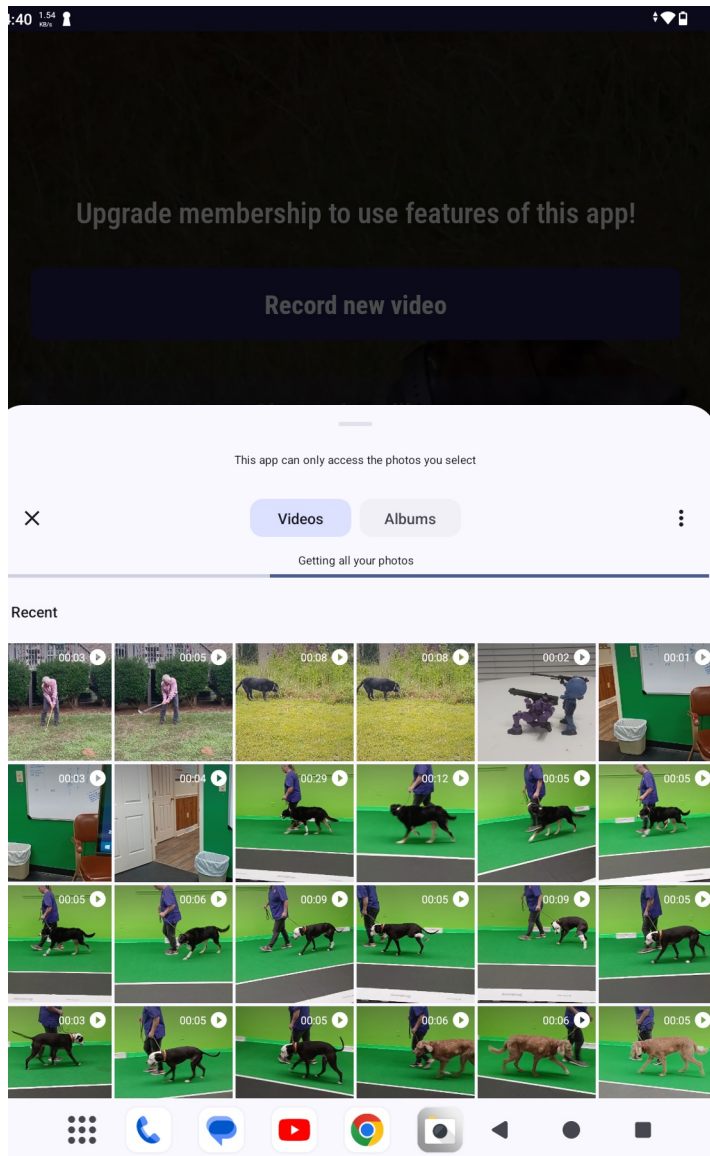

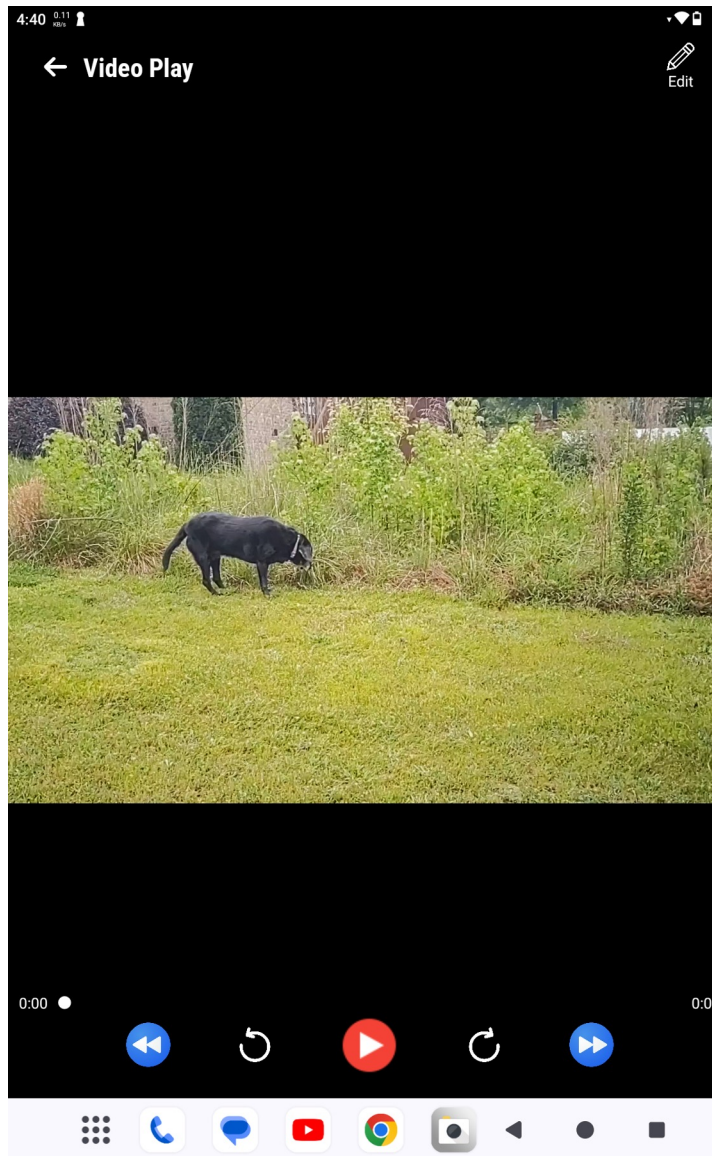

Snapshot successfully downloaded pop up

- Here, you can see the changes, including shapes and text.
- After editing the snapshot, you can save it to your device by tapping the Done button or cancel the editing session by tapping the Cancel button.

Selecting video from gallery

- You can select any video from the gallery

Video Play Screen

When you select a video, this screen will appear.

At the top of this screen, there are three icons:

- Delete: Deletes the selected video.
- Edit: Navigates to the edit video screen.
- Save: Saves the video to your local device.

The video player allows you to:

- Rewind and forward by 0.05 seconds.
- Pause and resume playback.
- Use the extreme left and right buttons to jump to the start and end of the video, respectively."